Hospitals in Burgas

- 3. Burgas has four hospitals and four medical stations. The following hospitals are known to informant:
 - a. The Durzhavna Bolnitsa (State Hospital) is located in a large 3-story building at the end of Kiril i Metodi Street, not far from the army barracks; it has an air raid shelter in the basement which extends the length of the hospital building;
 - b. The Rabotnicheska Bolnitsa (Workers' Hospital) is located in a ? or 4-story building opposite the central railroad station; it was established in 1948
 - c. The Katolicheska Bolnitsa (Catholic Hospital) has a surgical ward only; and
 - d. A large hospital, name unknown, located near the Rabotnicheska Bolnitsa.

Miscellaneous Installations in Burgas

- 4. Three large floating fuel tanks are located in the harbor near the old railroad station. Fuel oil arriving from abroad, in particular from Rumania, is unloaded into the tanks, and Bulgarian ships fuel from them. A pipeline connects the tanks with the railroad station, where fuel can be pumped into tank cars.
- 5. The underground air raid shelter, which is located in the municipal park, is a reinforced concrete structure in a zig-zag shape. It is approximately 2.5 meters wide, and the height is approximately the same. It has three entrances and is equipped with installations for water and electricity. A certain section, which is wider than the remainder, has been set apart for an emergency medical station.
